

NAUMI LIORA

This is one of the newest boutique hotels to open in the Chinatown area – you'll be staying in a quaint shophouse that's been preserved since the 1920s. There's no shortage of things to do together in the neighbourhood, with its endless eateries, street shopping and cool bars.

WHO STAYED: Penny Seow, senior designer, and boyfriend, Kevin Lim, assistant director at a local museum.

The "Emergency O.N.S Kit"

No, it's not what you're thinking. O.N.S actually stands for One Night Stay. This cute kit in your room comes with condoms, women's underwear and even a pair of edible underwear! "We didn't end up using them but we certainly had a good laugh," says Penny.

A tippie under the stars

Have an early dinner so you can watch the evening descend on the outdoor terrace of the Liora Porch Room. With the O.N.S package, you'll even get a free bottle of sparkling wine to enjoy. "From the porch, we had a view of the nearby park and sights of busy restaurant staff milling around, which added to the buzzing Chinatown vibe," says Penny.

Chill out in the quirky rooms of Naomi Liora. The cheeky O.N.S kit (below left) will hopefully keep you out of sticky situations.

O.N.S Package, $250 (includes all the features mentioned above and breakfast for two). Add $60 for a Liora Porch Room. 55 Keong Saik Road, tel: 6922-9000, www.naumiliora.com →